|---|---|---|
| STUDENTS' SUGGESTIONSThe students suggested that some of the poems and a play in the paper "Children's Literature" could be changed since they were unable to find secondary sources for the same. | It is resolved to replace R.L.Stevenson's "Travel", "The Unseen Playmate", "Block City" and "The Dumb Soldier" with Robert Browning's "The Pied Piper of Hamelin" and T.S.Eliot's "Macavity: The Mystery Cat" and to replace Una Nibuidh's "A Christmas Carol" and Vijay Tendulkar's "Bobby's Story" with J.M.Barrie's Peter Pan. | These poems and the play are by very reputed authors, have secondary sources and are useful for research.   |
| ALUMNI'SSuggested that alumni lectures should be conducted   | It has been decided to conduct interactive online sessions with the alumni for the benefit of the current students.   | This interaction would be of immense help in guiding the students in higher education and career choices  |
| PARENTS'Parents are satisfied with the syllabus and curriculum design but wanted the communication abilities of the students to be enhanced.   | The syllabus for I year Part II English has been completely re-vamped in accordance with the TANSICHE syllabus to enhance the communicative skills of the students.   | The TANSICHE syllabus is found to be effective, especially for freshers.  |
| FACULTY'SSuggested that new add-on and job oriented courses could be introduced. Some faculty members wanted a change in the elective papers   | It was decided to introduce job-oriented courses such as Content Writing and Creative Writing in the next academic year in collaboration with the Department of English (UA). The elective paper "Indian Feminist Literature" was introduced.   | These courses would open up new vistas for employment. The new elective would be helpful for future research and also to create awareness about gender issues in India. |
| EMPLOYERS'Suggested that students be given hands-on experience.  | Students have been encouraged to opt for online internship courses in various fields and also to do SWAYAM-MOOC courses and online courses through platforms such   | Students are enthusiastically participating in the internship   |
